Course learning objectives (CLOs)

Students who pass this course should be able to:

- 1. identify some of the taken-for-granted assumptions and patterns of communication in English;
- 2. analyse why people make particular language choices and what they mean by them;
- 3. discuss how social context is important in language use;

4. explain some of the social and cultural factors involved in the way people express and interpret their ideas in language;

5. demonstrate an understanding of some research which addresses concepts and issues in discourse and meaning.

Teaching format

The course is delivered through three lectures per week. There will be a separate tutorial for Honours students in the course each fortnight (venue and time to be negotiated at the first lecture). The course also has a Blackboard site, where lecture slides, activities and hand outs will be posted.

Mandatory course requirements

Students must obtain at least 40% in each piece of assessment to ensure they are meeting the Course Learning Objectives.

Any student who is concerned that they are unable to meet the MCRs because of exceptional personal circumstances, should contact the Course Coordinator as soon as possible.

Workload

Students are expected to devote a total of about 300 hours, spread throughout the trimester, to this course in order to maintain satisfactory progress. The following gives an indication of how that time may be distributed:

Class attendance: Lectures: 33 hours (over 12 weeks) Tutorials: 6 hours Reading to prepare for and review lectures: 57 hours (approx 1.75 hours per lecture) Preparation for tutorials: 10 hours

Extended reading, particularly of research studies: 36 hours (3 hours x 12 weeks)

For the assignments (including reading, researching, analysing, writing up):

Assignment 1: 18 hours

Assignment 2: 40 hours

Assignment 3: 25 hours

Assignment 4: 75 hours

Assessment

LING 421 will be examined by in-term assessment. The final grade will be awarded on the basis of your marks for four assignments (10%, 25%, 15% and 50% respectively). Assignments 1, 2 and 3 are the same as for LING 321, but note that LING 421 has different required lengths for the assignments (see below). Note that LING 421 assignments should demonstrate a breadth and depth of relevant reading that is appropriate for postgraduate work.

Assessment items and workload per item		Word length	%	CLOs	Due date
1	Assignment 1: Transcription and analysis	Transcript plus 800-1000 words	10%	1, 2	17 August, 12 noon
2	Assignment 2: Applying a discourse analytic approach	2000-2200 words	25%	1, 2, 3	17 September, 12 noon
3	Assignment 3: Research proposal	1400-1500 words	15%	2, 3	1 October, 12 noon
4	Assignment 4: Research project	4000-4500 words	50%	2, 3, 4, 5	15 October, 12 noon

• Details of the assessment tasks, including marking criteria, will be provided in separate handouts.

• Make sure you keep a copy of all work that you hand in.

• Assignments should be submitted in the assignment mailbox beside the door of the School office (VZ210) by 12 noon on the due date. You should also submit your assignment on Blackboard as a Word file (see section below on Turnitin).

Guidelines for presenting assignments

- Refer to the Linguistics Programme Style Sheet for guidance on referencing and other matters
- Set margins to at least 2.5cm
- Set line spacing to 1.5
- Set font size to 12pt
- Include page numbers
- Provide a word count at the end of the assignment (not including references and appendices)
- Print on one side of A4 paper
- Include an assignment cover sheet (downloadable from Blackboard)
- Staple pages together
- Do not present your assignment in a sleeve or in a bulky folder.

Submission and return of work

Every effort will be made to return your work approximately 2 weeks from the date of submission.

Extensions and penalties

Extensions

An extension (with no penalty) will be considered on the grounds of exceptional personal circumstances. If you require an extension, ask the Course Coordinator ahead of the due date for the assignment.

Penalties

Assignments handed in after the due time/date will receive a reduced grade unless accompanied by a medical certificate or other evidence of exceptional circumstances. In any case where you are not able to submit an assignment by the due date, you must get explicit permission from the Course Coordinator before the due date to hand it in late and negotiate the length of the extension. Only assignments carrying an assignment cover sheet signed by the course coordinator have a valid extension.

Any assignment which is handed in late, and which does not carry a valid extension, will be penalised by one grade (e.g. B reduced to B-, or B- reduced to C+) if it is handed in up to one day after the deadline, by two grades if it is handed in up to two days after the deadline etc. Assignments which carry a valid extension will be penalised in a similar fashion if they are handed in after the rescheduled due date. Note that mandatory course requirements specify that all work must be handed in by 5pm on Friday 23 October 2015.

You are strongly advised to begin work early on assignments to be sure of getting access to relevant books and articles, to collect appropriate examples, to avoid last -minute rush, and to ensure that your work is not needlessly penalised.

Set texts

There is a set of course readings available for purchase at vicbooks (www.vicbooks.co.nz)

Recommended reading

This is an introductory text book which will provide basic information:

Paltridge, Brian 2012. Discourse Analysis: An Introduction. London/New York: Bloomsbury Academic.

A list of recommended reading is available in a separate handout, and additional readings relating to specific topics will be recommended in lectures.

Class representative

The class representative provides a useful way to communicate feedback to the teaching staff during the course. There will be a class representative for the Honours programme as a whole. Students may like to write the Class Rep's name and details in this box:

Class Rep name and contact details:

Student feedback

This is the first time that the course will be taught by this Course Coordinator. She welcomes feedback on all aspects of the course at any time. Based on feedback from former students in LING 421, the "lectorial" format has been retained for this course i.e. there will be many opportunities for students to participate and workshop data within lectures.

Student feedback on University courses may be found at www.cad.vuw.ac.nz/feedback/feedback_display.php.
