Teaching format

This course comprises one 2-hour lecture and one 1-hour lecture per week.

See attached course syllabus for more information.

Workload

A 15-point one-trimester course should require at least 150 hours' work (including class time). This means that during the trimester, the mid-trimester break and study week you should be prepared to spend, on average, 10 hours per week involved in activities such as attending classes, reading, listening to recommended recordings and preparing assignments.

Assignments will normally be marked and returned within three weeks of submission.

Extensions and penalties

Extensions

Students, who for exceptional reasons can justify an extension for an item of assessment, must apply to the Course Coordinator before the due date. Please note that no extensions can be granted for tutorial assignments.

Penalties

Assignments must be submitted by the due dates. In fairness to other students, unless a medical certificate is produced, assessment submitted after 5:00pm on the due date will be subject to a 5% demerit on your grade, increasing by 5% each further working day it is overdue.

Materials and equipment and/or additional expenses

The Course Coordinator may recommend materials as required.

Set texts

Students are urged to invest in a good orchestration textbook. Although these are stocked at the Central Library, they are in high demand, and may not always be available. If you are serious about instrumentation, orchestration and/or composition, these texts will last a lifetime.

We recommend that you buy one of the following two texts:

Samuel Adler: The Study of Orchestration, 3rd edition. New York: W.W. Norton, 2002

Kent Kennan and Donald Grantham: The Technique of Orchestration, 6th edition. Upper Saddle River, New Jersey: Prentice Hall, 2002

(The cheapest option is amazon.com, but delivery may take some time. These texts are also available through bookdepository.com, with free delivery, and you'll receive them more quickly.)

Students are encouraged to purchase the NZSM Guide to Music Notation.

All textbooks and student notes will be sold from Vic Books, Ground Floor, Easterfield Building. Customers can order textbooks and student notes online at www.vicbooks.co.nz, or email an order or enquiry to enquiries@vicbooks.co.nz. Books can be couriered to customers, or they can be picked up from nominated collection points at each campus. Customers will be contacted when they are available.

Other texts of note:

Nikolai Rimsky-Korsakov: Principles of Orchestration. Dover Publications

Walter Piston: Orchestration.

Alfred Blatter: Instrumentation and Orchestration, 2nd edition. Schirmer Books

Hector Berlioz & Richard Strauss: Treatise on Instrumentation. Dover Publications
