Communication of additional information

Official notices issued after the course has commenced will be posted on the board outside the NZSM office on the Kelburn Campus. Notices concerning a number of courses will also be posted on Blackboard. The Course Coordinator will specify if Blackboard will be used.

Prescription

Advanced study of selected music of the 17th and 18th centuries, considered from a range of historical, analytic and critical perspectives.

Course learning objectives (CLOs)

Students who have successfully completed this course will be able to:

1. differentiate and discuss different musical and critical ideals, along with their social and political implications
2. discuss the realisations of these debates in 18th-century musical works and practices
3. write effective essays on musical works, practices, or issues related to the course.

These learning objectives contribute to the NZSM Graduate Attributes. For a full list, please see www.nzsm.ac.nz/study-careers/graduate-attributes

Teaching format

This course comprises one 2-hour lecture and one 1-hour lecture, plus one optional 1-hour tutorial per week. During tutorials, a graduate tutor will guide students in discussion of course readings and/or set works, or assist with/give feedback on work in progress, where appropriate.

Mandatory course requirements

In addition to achieving an overall pass mark of 50%, students must:

- a) attend at least one Music Forum seminar presentation in the trimester the course is taught. This requirement develops crucial skills in listening, engaging with, and critically assessing research presentations, and is related to Learning Objectives 1 and 3.

Students who are concerned that they have been (or might be) unable to meet any of the mandatory course requirements, because of exceptional personal circumstances, should contact the Course Coordinator as soon as possible.

Workload

A 20-point one-trimester course should require at least 200 hours' work (including class time). This means that during the trimester, the mid-trimester break and study week you should be prepared to spend, on average, 13 hours per week involved in activities such as attending classes, reading, listening to recommended recordings and preparing assignments.

Assessment

Assessment items and workload per item		%	CLO(s)	Due date
1	Journal Entries (maximum 400 words each)	20%	1–3	7, 14, 21 March, 11 April; 2, 9 May
2	Analytical Exercise (750 words plus annotated score)	10%	1–3	4 April

3	Bibliographic Exercise for Essay (750 words)	10%	3	18 April
4	Written Essay (3,000 words)	20%	1–3	27 May
5	Closed-book Final Examination (3 hours)	40%	1, 2, 3	TBC in examination period

Submission and return of work

Journal entries must be submitted via Blackboard (see the Course Syllabus for details). Other assignments should be emailed to samantha.owens@vuw.ac.nz.

Written assignments should be submitted as Microsoft Word files (and not as pdf files).

Music examples and the score for the analytical assignment should be included as a scan.

Assignments will normally be marked and returned as soon as possible, within three weeks of the date of submission, and returned via email.

Extensions and penalties

Extensions

Students, who for exceptional reasons can justify an extension for an item of assessment, must apply to the Course Coordinator before the due date. Please note that no extensions can be granted for tutorial assignments.

Penalties

Assignments must be submitted by the due dates. In fairness to other students, unless a medical certificate is produced, assessment submitted after 5:00pm on the due date will be subject to a 5% demerit on your grade, increasing by 5% each further working day it is overdue.

Recommended reading

Recommended reading is listed by topic in the course syllabus.

Class representative

The class representative provides a useful way to communicate feedback to the teaching staff during the course. A class representative will be selected at the first lecture of the course.

Student feedback

This is the first offering of this course by this lecturer. You will have the opportunity to provide informal feedback halfway through the course, and formal feedback at the end of the course.
