Prescription

Approved and supervised work placement of the student in a public sector agency, private sector establishment, or non-governmental organisation with a predominant focus on Pacific issues.

Course learning objectives (CLOs)

Students who pass this course will be able to:

- 1. gain an understanding of the issues involved in working with Pacific Islands people in a public sector agency, private establishment or non-governmental organisation that primarily serves Pacific communities in New Zealand or has a mandate in the Pacific region,
- 2. reflect critically on both the applied and intellectual dimensions of the work experience,
- articulate and assess in writing and oral presentation the coherence or lack thereof between theoretical knowledge in Pacific Studies and the practices of policy-making, policy-analysis and/or service delivery.

Teaching format

PASI 428 involves approved and supervised work placement of the student in a public sector agency, private sector establishment, or non-governmental organisation with a predominant focus on Pacific communities or Pacific issues.

Workload

The workload should average 10 hours a week throughout the course. The actual workload will vary at various stages of the internship. Students will be expected to spend between 150 and 200 hours at the internship agency, 30 hours in supervision sessions with the academic supervisor, around 80 hours to prepare a critical reflection on the work experience and around 20 hours to prepare a seminar about the work experience.

Assessment

| Assessment items and workload per item |  | %   | CLO(s)  | Due date                           |
|--|--|-----|---------|------------------------------------|
| 1                                      | Completion of 150-200 hours work experience in designated organization or agency | 25% | 1, 2, 3 | By September                       |
| 2                                      | A written critical reflection essay on the work experience (3000 words)          | 50% | 1, 2, 3 | By 14 October                      |
| 3                                      | Seminar Presentation   | 25% | 1, 2,3  | BetweenAugust andSeptember |

For the PASI 428 Internship, students will be required to:

- work approx 150-200 hours over the duration of this course; and
- write a 3,000 word original reflective paper on the work experience (worth 50%); and
- provide a seminar presentation about the work experience (worth 25%).

A work placement report by the Academic supervisor assessing the student's performance on the job will also be required (worth 25%).

Submission and return of work

All written work must be submitted to assigned supervisors by advertised or agreed upon deadlines. Supervisors undertake to provide feedback to students on their written work in a timely manner.

Extensions and penalties

Extensions

Assignments submitted more than seven days after a due date or authorised extension will still be accepted in order to meet mandatory course requirements, but will not be marked. For more information about circumstances warranting extensions, refer to the section on extensions in the Victoria University Assessment Handbook.

Penalties

Late submissions for student assignments in all Samoan Studies and Pacific Studies undergraduate courses are subject to a penalty, except when accompanied by a medical certificate or evidence of other exceptional circumstances. The exact deduction will be calculated on the basis of one half mark per day late.

Practicum/internship arrangements

The placement will be organised through the Postgraduate Coordinator. Academic staff supervising the internship will be required to liaise with the work placement site and ensure adequate orientation, supervision, and lines of communication for student.

Set texts

There is no set text or book of student notes for this course. All readings will be placed on Blackboard by the Course Coordinator.

Student feedback

Because of the small enrolments in this course, anonymity cannot be guaranteed, so no formal evaluations have taken place for this course. Student feedback on University courses may be found at <a href="https://www.cad.vuw.ac.nz/feedback
