Official notices issued after the course has commenced will be posted on Blackboard.

Prescription

Development and refinement of performance skills gained at undergraduate level, consolidation of musical independence and initiative, and the ability to perform or conduct a variety of musical genres.

Course learning objectives (CLOs)

Students successfully completing this course will be able to:

1. Demonstrate artistic and musical maturity and advanced technical proficiency.
2. Demonstrate advanced stylistic awareness.
3. Demonstrate contextual awareness.
4. Demonstrate ability to create and present a professional profile.

These learning objectives contribute to the NZSM Graduate Attributes. For a full list, please see www.nzsm.ac.nz/study-careers/graduate-attributes

Teaching format

- Individual lessons 12 x 1.5hr, (plus 1.5 optional review sessions during examination period)
- Classes as described in class times
- Performance Workshop, Fridays 1.30-3pm, ACR.

Accompanying:

Students enrolled in classical performance courses may request to work with an NZSM accompanist (voice students will be assigned an accompanist at the start of the trimester). Full details of the NZSM Accompanying Scheme are on Blackboard, either in the Student Handbook or under Course Resources – Accompanists. It is your responsibility to read this information. NB: Not all repertoire can be accommodated within the NZSM accompanying programme; approval is at the discretion of the Accompaniment Coordinator. All music for final recitals must be handed in by Friday 22 April 2016.

Contacts for any queries:

Mark Dorrell – Accompaniment Coordinator - mark.dorrell@vuw.ac.nz

See relevant instrument syllabus for more information.

Mandatory course requirements

In addition to achieving an overall pass mark of 50%, students must:

a) Attend at least 80% of instrumental lessons, classes and required performance workshops related to this course. NZSM activities (including all rehearsals, lessons, classes etc.) take precedence over external activities (e.g. Wellington Youth Orchestra, Vector Wellington Orchestra, RNZAF Band, and NZSO) unless permission has first been obtained from the Programme Leader and a Request for Leave form is completed in full.

Justification: lessons are given on a one to one basis, and are the primary place for feedback to be given. Students need regular feedback in order to improve their skills and avoid developing bad habits. Attendance and participation at classes and workshops is essential for these classes to run as they should, since they involve active input from attending students. These workshops help develop students' ability to critique their colleagues' performances and learn from each other.

b) Have all recital repertoire approved in writing by the Programme Leader for Classical Performance by mid-trimester break.

Justification: Repertoire being prepared at this level requires sufficient time to learn and refine. Having repertoire confirmed at the mid-year point avoids a last-minute change of piece which may then adversely affect the standard of the final recital.

Any student who is concerned that they have been (or might be) unable to meet any of the mandatory course requirements because of exceptional personal circumstances, should contact the course coordinator as soon as possible.

FURTHER INFORMATION

Lesson attendance:

You are expected to attend all lessons as arranged with your teacher. Lessons missed without 24 hours' notice may not be rescheduled.

Request for Leave forms:

Unless there are special circumstances to be considered, all applications for leave must be lodged in writing not less than 3 weeks before the period of requested absence. If possible, the leave should take place when assessments are not due. The leave must be for activities clearly related to the programme.

In cases of bereavement students may submit a leave form after the period of leave, to be signed off by the Programme Leader.

Leave forms are available under course resources on Blackboard, or from the tall grey set of drawers outside the office at Kelburn.

Additional Performance Requirements:

When requested, students are expected to rehearse and perform student compositions in the Composer Workshop, Wednesdays 3.00-4.30pm, and in other composition/instrumentation classes. If you are unsure about the suitability of a piece to your performing level please check with your teacher.

Workload

A 30-point one-trimester course should require at least 300 hours' work (including class time). This means that during the trimester, the mid-trimester break and study week you should be prepared to spend on average 20 hours per week involved in activities such as attending classes, practising, reading, listening to recommended recordings and preparing assignments.

Assessment

Assessment items and workload per item		%	CLO(s)	Due date
1	Recital (20-30 mins). This recital duration represents part of a total duration of 55-70 minutes when added to the length of the recital undertaken in PERF 416.	95%	1-4	End of Trimester exam period (10-29 June)
2	Programme notes for assessed recital including biographical notes.	5%	3-4	Friday 20 May 2016

Rubrics for grading of recitals will be available on Blackboard.

End-of-trimester recital: Will be scheduled in Trimester 1 exam period (10 – 29 June 2016). The time limit of your performance recital will be strictly enforced. If you exceed the maximum duration, your performance may be stopped. You will be notified of your exact date and time for your recital by 1 May 2016 via email. You must be available throughout the exam period.

Recital Assessment Procedures

Three copies of your programme notes, a copy of your CV and one copy of each score to be performed in the recital must be provided for the use of the assessment panel. These are to be submitted to the NZSM office in Kelburn no later than 5 working days before the date of your recital.

Submission of the above items is a part of your recital assessment, and you need to complete all components of this assessment in order to meet mandatory requirements. The regulations for submission of written work are outlined below: late submission of any of these items will incur the penalties stated below, unless an extension has been granted in writing by the Programme Leader for Classical Performance.

Programme notes are to be set out as outlined in the NZSM Programme Note Style Sheet made available on Blackboard in the Classical Performance Student Handbook. Instructions for the journal content are also available on Blackboard and outlined in the same Handbook.

The scores provided for the panel (one copy only of each work) must be in the key and edition you are performing and give the accompaniment where applicable. Original copies are preferred unless these are particularly bulky. If you do not provide originals for the recital panel, for copyright reasons you should still have an original copy of each work present at the recital performance. In most cases you can borrow these from the Victoria library or from your teacher.

Students are responsible for the production and duplication of programme notes for the panel and any extra copies they wish to make available for audience members.

Stage management – where necessary, you are responsible for arranging a stage manager for your recital.

Recital Assessment panel:

The assessment panel will consist of your teacher (or a nominated representative), an internal examiner and a year's moderator.

Recital Assessment Reports:

Reports for performance recitals will be available from the Programme Administrator (either via e-mail or from the NZSM office at Kelburn) on request. If not requested earlier, reports will be emailed to students after grades have been published.

For performance courses assessed by recitals, an aegrotat cannot apply. Instead, the student (with the written approval of the teacher) must apply to the Director NZSM to have his/her assessment delayed. Any such delayed assessment must be completed prior to the start of the following trimester.

Submission and return of work

Scores, programme notes etc. should be handed in to the Classical Performance Programme Administrator at the reception desk.

Scores to be returned will be left available to be collected from reception.

NB: This course is moderated, so all students are requested to retain all marked assessment items in the event that they are required at the end of the course.

Extensions and penalties

Extensions

Students, who for exceptional reasons can justify an extension for an item of assessment, must apply to the Course Coordinator before the due date. Please note that no extensions can be granted for tutorial assignments.

Penalties

Assignments must be submitted by the due dates. In fairness to other students, unless a medical certificate is produced, assessment submitted after 5pm on the due date will be subject to a 5% demerit on your grade, increasing by 5% each further working day it is overdue.

Materials and equipment and/or additional expenses

Please be prepared to make music purchases on a regular basis. You will slowly be building up your own library over many years so regard it as an investment. Keep your eyes open for second hand music but learn first which editions are acceptable. There are also websites that offer cheaper downloadable sheet music.

Recommended reading

As recommended by your individual teachers and/or Head of Instrument Programme.

Class representative

The class representative provides a useful way to communicate feedback to the teaching staff during the course. A class representative will be selected at the first lecture of the course.

Student feedback

This course is set up to be identical to NZSM411, but starting and ending mid-year, and therefore divided into two courses. Previous students taking NZSM411 found it to be well organised, with the amount of work about right, and valued the skills learned from the course.

Student feedback on University courses may be found at www.cad.vuw.ac.nz/feedback/feedback_display.php.
