Prescription

ARTH 222 surveys European art from the later 18th-century to around 1900, introducing the principal movements, the leading artists and the theoretical concerns of the period. Beginning with Neoclassicism and Romanticism, two international artistic currents that ran parallel as well as counter to each other, the course then examines Realism and Impressionism, movements which emphasised direct reportage and the rendering of nature in new ways. Particular attention will be paid to French and British art, both academic and avant-garde.

Course content

Themes will include

- The emergence of the artist as genius/outsider/celebrity
- The collapse of a hierarchy of genres
- The conflicts between Academy and Avant-garde
- The international nature of artistic movements

Course learning objectives (CLOs)

Students who pass this course should be able to:

1. analyse and interpret the art of this period within the relevant social, political and theoretical contexts;
2. gather and organise relevant information and evidence from published material (i.e. secondary sources) and to further your ability to construct an argument using this material;
3. present material which is coherent and well-written and which demonstrates an understanding and application of the conventions of academic writing (including appropriate citation, referencing and documentation).

Teaching format

ARTH 222 consists of 22 one-hour lectures, 10 one-hour tutorials, an essay assignment, and two tests.

Mandatory course requirements

In addition to achieving an overall pass mark of 50%, students must:

1. complete and submit the essay specified for the course
2. attend at least 7 tutorials
3. sit two tests

Any student who is concerned that they have been (or might be) unable to meet any of the MCRs because of exceptional personal circumstances, should contact the course coordinator as soon as possible.

Workload

The University recommends that 200 hours inclusive of lectures and tutorials, be given to a 20-point course in order to maintain satisfactory progress, i.e. 16 hours/week. Please make sure you can set aside at least this amount of time throughout the course.

Typically, you will dedicate 30 hours to attending classes, 20 hours to reading for tutorials, 60 hours to researching and writing your assignment, 80 hours to researching and writing your essay, and 10 hours to revising course materials in preparation for the final test.

Assessment

The course is internally assessed by means of one essay and two tests. Each of the tests will relate to the part of the course that precedes them, while the essay will allow you to range more broadly over the course content. In this way, the assessment should ensure that you have a sound knowledge of as much of the course as possible.

Assessment items and workload per item	%	CLO(s)	Due date
1 Test held in Murphy 101, 1.10pm, covering lecture material from 11 July to 15 August. This is designed to test both your visual and analytical skills. You will be required to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• identify and date two images NOT shown in lectures, justifying your identification on stylistic grounds (10 mins per image)</li><li>• identify and briefly discuss three pairs of images which have been shown in lectures (10 minutes per pair).</li></ul>	25%	1, 2, 3	Wednesday 17 August
2 Essay, length 2500 words. The essay requires you to undertake in-depth research on an artist or theme, and is designed to develop your abilities to research the topic and formulate an argument, to structure your essay so that your points are clearly made, and to ensure that the essay conforms to the conventions of art-historical writing.	50%	1, 2, 3	5pm, Friday 23 September
3 Test held in Murphy 101, 1.10pm, covering lecture material from 5 September to 10 October. You will be required to answer two broad questions based on pairs of identified images shown in lectures. You may substitute an essay worth 25% (1500 words) for the final test. If you choose this option you must submit your second essay by 5pm on Friday, 14 October. Make sure the essay covers a different historical period from your first essay.	25%	1, 2, 3	Wednesday 12 October

Submission and return of work

Essays should be placed in the art history assignment box in the ground floor foyer of Old Kirk by 5pm on the due date unless otherwise directed. No assignments will be accepted after October 18 without prior arrangement. If you are in any doubt about your ability to meet this deadline you must see your tutor or course coordinator immediately. Essays will be marked by your lecturer or tutor. A second opinion may be requested in the final assessment of any piece of written work.

Essays will be returned in tutorials or available from the Art History office.

Extensions and Penalties

Extensions for the essay are possible if you are having serious difficulties completing your work. To receive a short extension, contact the course coordinator by email before the 5 pm deadline. For extensions longer than 3 days, you will have to provide written justification (e.g., a medical certificate, death notice, or letter from a counsellor, etc.). Extensions for the seminar presentations will only be granted in exceptional circumstances and with appropriate written documentation.

Penalties will apply for late work. 5% will be deducted for work submitted more than 72 hours late; a further 2.5% will be deducted for each subsequent day. Work submitted more than 10 days late will not be marked; the work must still be submitted to meet mandatory course requirements. Late work receives only minimal comments from your marker.
