Prescription

Development of theoretical knowledge and skills for improvisation, composition, transcription, transposition and analysis to an advanced standard.

Course learning objectives (CLOs)

Students who have successfully completed this course will be able to:

1. demonstrate an understanding of advanced jazz harmony, form, melodic construction, reharmonisation and non-functional tonality through analysis
2. demonstrate a thorough knowledge of jazz aural skills, including intervals, chord and scale/mode qualities (including altered dominant qualities), and chord progressions
3. demonstrate knowledge of, and basic skills in, jazz composition.

These learning objectives contribute to the NZSM Graduate Attributes. For a full list, please see www.nzsm.ac.nz/study-careers/graduate-attributes

Teaching format

This course comprises one 1-hour lecture and one 2-hour lecture per week, and one 1-hour tutorial per week. During tutorials, a graduate tutor will guide students in discussion of course readings and/or set works, or assist with/give feedback on work in progress, where appropriate.

See attached course syllabus for more information.

Workload

A 20-point one-trimester course should require at least 200 hours' work (including class time). This means that during the trimester, the mid-trimester break and study week you should be prepared to spend, on average, 13 hours per week involved in activities such as attending classes, reading, listening to recommended recordings and preparing assignments.

Marking criteria

Please see the attached syllabus for details (also provided on Blackboard).

Submission and return of work

Assignments should be given to the lecturer in class.

Marked assignments will normally be returned to students in class.

Assignments will normally be marked and returned within three weeks of submission.

Extensions and penalties

Extensions

Students, who for exceptional reasons can justify an extension for an item of assessment, must apply to the Course Coordinator before the due date. Please note that no extensions can be granted for tutorial assignments.

Penalties

Assignments must be submitted by the due dates. In fairness to other students, unless a medical certificate is produced, assessment submitted after 5:00pm on the due date will be subject to a 5% demerit on your grade, increasing by 5% each further working day it is overdue.

Materials and equipment and/or additional expenses

Students will need a working copy of Finale 2014, Music Notation software.

Set texts

Required: The Jazz Theory Book, Mark Levine. Available online from amazon.com or shermusic.com.

Jazz theory and composition materials will be available on Blackboard as necessary.

All textbooks and student notes will be sold from Vic Books, Ground Floor, Easterfield Building. Customers can order textbooks and student notes online at www.vicbooks.co.nz, or email an order or enquiry to enquiries@vicbooks.co.nz. Books can be couriered to customers, or they can be picked up from nominated collection points at each campus. Customers will be contacted when they are available.

Class representative

The class representative provides a useful way to communicate feedback to the teaching staff during the course. A class representative will be selected at the first lecture of the course.

Student feedback

Students will have the opportunity to provide informal feedback halfway through the course, and formal feedback at the end of the course.

Student feedback on University courses may be found at www.cad.vuw.ac.nz/feedback/feedback_display.php.

Events

Regular events are held during trimesters 1 & 2. These events are for the benefit of all students, and include performances, masterclasses, special lectures and workshops given by staff, students and visiting artists. All students are expected to keep time free to attend the weekly lunchtime concert on Friday at 12:10pm, along with other events as required.

Students should sign up to the Dawn Chorus, the NZSM's events e-newsletter, by emailing events@nzsm.ac.nz with 'subscribe dawn chorus' in the subject line.
