Prescription

An academic study of the resources, instruments, techniques and stylistic conventions relevant to the performance of music from Renaissance to modern times, with an emphasis on works of the 18th and 19th centuries.

Course learning objectives (CLOs)

Students who successfully complete this course will be able to:

1. explain and evaluate a range of issues involved in historical performance practice, including debates about the aesthetic validity of 'historically informed performance'
2. explain and evaluate how music in a particular style might originally have sounded, as well as the links between the historical study of style and contemporary approaches to performing
3. identify and evaluate the use of primary sources as lines of evidence for historical performance styles
4. generate new scholarly work about music, employing skills in scholarly research and academic writing.

These learning objectives contribute to the NZSM Graduate Attributes. For a full list, please see www.nzsm.ac.nz/study-careers/graduate-attributes

Teaching format

This course comprises one 2-hour lecture and one 1-hour tutorial per week. During tutorials, a graduate tutor will guide students in discussion of course readings and/or set works, or assist with/give feedback on work in progress, where appropriate.

See attached course syllabus for more information.

Mandatory course requirements

In addition to achieving an overall pass mark of 50%, students must:

- a) attend at least one Music Forum seminar presentation in the trimester the course is taught. Rationale: This requirement develops crucial skills in listening, engaging with, and critically assessing research presentations. Students who are concerned that they have been (or might be) unable to meet any of the mandatory course requirements, because of exceptional personal circumstances, should contact the Course Coordinator as soon as possible.

Workload

A 20-point one-trimester course should require at least 200 hours' work (including class time). This means that during the trimester, the mid-trimester break and study week you should be prepared to spend, on average, 13 hours per week involved in activities such as attending classes, reading, listening to recommended recordings and preparing assignments.

Assessment

Assessment details for this offering

Assessment items and workload per item		%	CLO(s)	Due date
1	Case Studies I & II (each approx. 1,000 words and worth 15%)	30%	1–4	5 August; 16 September (5:00pm)
2	Tests I & II (each approx. 50 minutes and worth 15%)	30%	1–4	18 August; 6 October (in class)
3	Preparatory Work for Research Project	10%	1–4	13 October (in class)
4	Research Project (approx. 2,000 words)	30%	1–4	25 October (5:00pm)

Submission and return of work

Assignments should be deposited in Samantha Owens's mailbox (in the NZSM Foyer) in hard copy and also submitted electronically via the course Blackboard site.

Marked assignments will normally be returned to the student pigeonholes.

Assignments will normally be marked and returned within three weeks of submission.

Extensions and penalties

Extensions

Students, who for exceptional reasons can justify an extension for an item of assessment, must apply to the Course Coordinator before the due date. Please note that no extensions can be granted for tutorial assignments.

Penalties

Assignments must be submitted by the due dates. In fairness to other students, unless a medical certificate is produced, assessment submitted after 5:00pm on the due date will be subject to a 5% demerit on your grade, increasing by 5% each further working day it is overdue.

Recommended reading

Recommended reading is listed by topic in the course syllabus and in the lecture handouts.

Class representative

The class representative provides a useful way to communicate feedback to the teaching staff during the course. A class representative will be selected at the first lecture of the course.

Student feedback

This is the first offering of this course by this lecturer. You will have the opportunity to provide informal feedback halfway through the course, and formal feedback at the end of the course.

Student feedback on University courses may be found at www.cad.vuw.ac.nz/feedback/feedback_display.php.

Events

Regular events are held during trimesters 1 & 2. These events are for the benefit of all students, and include performances, masterclasses, special lectures and workshops given by staff, students and visiting artists. All students are expected to keep time free to attend the weekly lunchtime concert on Friday at 12:10pm, along with other events as required. Music Forum will take place every Friday from 3:10pm–4:30pm. It will normally take place in the Adam Concert Room, Kelburn Campus.

Students should sign up to the Dawn Chorus, the NZSM's events e-newsletter, by emailing events@nzsm.ac.nz with 'subscribe dawn chorus' in the subject line.
