2. properly evaluate current and future research within those fields, and
3. under supervision, embark on a research project within those fields.

Teaching format

This course will involve one seminar per week in the second trimester. Seminars will run for one hour and 50 minutes.

Workload

In accordance with University guidelines, students will nominally devote 150 hours to the course throughout the trimester. This includes weekly attendance at lectures revision for and completion of all set assessment tasks. The University's Assessment Handbook stipulates that course outlines should "specify the average time that is notionally assigned to the completion of each assessment task." A notional assignment of completion times appears below (which excludes the times required for attendance at seminars, reading for class and preparation for presentations):

Essay: 75 hours.

Assessment

One essay, of approximately 5000 words. Opportunity will be given to submit a draft and receive feedback.

Assessment Item	Weighting	CLOs	Due Date
Essay	100%	1, 2, 3	13 th October 2016

The essay will be evaluated against the following criteria:

1. succinctness, clarity and precision of expression,
2. originality of thesis,
3. soundness of argument,
4. understanding and survey of related literature.

Submission and return of work

All essays must be submitted in two ways. A copy of the essay must first be submitted digitally via blackboard. Make sure you save your file as a Microsoft Word document. The title of your file should follow the following format: last name, underscore, first name, underscore, essay number, dot, docx (for example: smith_john_5.docx). A hard copy of the essay must then be submitted to one of the school administrators located in MY518. Indicative grades and comments will be posted on blackboard.

Please ensure that all essays have page numbers.

Essays and tests will be returned at times to be advised. If students fail to attend these times, they may collect their essay from the Office, Murphy Room 518, between the hours of 2.00 and 3.00 pm from Monday to Friday and must show their Student ID card before collection.

Extensions and Penalties

Late submission of assessment tasks will not get a grade higher than a C- unless the student makes an appointment as soon as practically possible with the course coordinator to explain the lateness (preferably before the assessment task is due to be submitted). The circumstances under which an extension will be considered are outlined in section 3.2.1 of the Assessment Handbook.

(See: <http://www.victoria.ac.nz/documents/policy/staff-policy/assessment-handbook.pdf>).

Set texts

A full reading list will be given to students at the first class, and posted on the Honours 2016 Blackboard website. Students will also be expected to do some additional research using the Philosophers Index (library database).

Class representative

The class representative provides a useful way to communicate feedback to the teaching staff during the course. A class representative will be selected at the first lecture of the course. Contact details for the class representative will be made available on blackboard.
