Communication of additional information

The Spanish and Latin American Studies Programme noticeboard is in the corridor outside the Seminar Room (vZ 515). Additional information or information on changes will be conveyed to students either via class, noticeboards, Blackboard, or email.

Prescription

This course presents a range of literary works, studied in their original Spanish versions, produced by Spanish and/or Latin American writers in the twentieth- and twenty-first centuries. As well as setting the texts within the socio-political context of the contemporary Hispanic world, this course aims to introduce students to relevant themes explored in contemporary literary criticism.

Course learning objectives (CLOs)

Students who pass this course will be able to:

1. demonstrate knowledge and understanding of the literary works studied;
2. discuss these texts in spoken and written analysis;
3. demonstrate knowledge of selected aspects of political, social and cultural history of Latin America in relation to these texts.

Teaching format

This course is delivered through two lectures and one tutorial per week. The lectures will focus on the primary texts that are studied in the course, including discussion of the socio-political contexts relevant to these works and aspects of contemporary literary criticism. The tutorials will focus on the development of analytical skills through discussion of the primary texts and other set readings.

Workload

The University Assessment Handbook has laid down guidelines as to the number of hours per week which students are expected to devote to a course in order to maintain satisfactory progress. Students enrolling in a one-trimester 20-point, 200-hour course should work on average 14 hours per week including contact hours- i.e., in the case of SPAN 312, 11 hours of private study outside class time. Some students will find they need to do more than this, especially if they are aiming to achieve high grades. A possible distribution of study time each week would be:

Class and tutorial attendance	3 hours
Reading and reviewing class notes	4 hours
Tutorial preparation	3 hours
Study for final exam and reading for essays	4 hours

Assessment requirements

Assessment for SPAN 312 consists of 100% internal assessment as follows:

Assessment items and workload per item	%	CLO(s)	Due date
1 Essay 1 (approx.. 2,000 words)	25%	1, 2 and 3	8 September
2 Essay 2 (approx. 2,000 words)	25%	1, 2 and 3	24 October
3 In-class Test 1 20%	20%	1, 2 and 3	17 August
4 In-class Test 2 20%	20%	1, 2, 3	12 October
4 Tutorial Preparation Assignments x 8 (150-200 words each)	10%	1, 2 and 3	Weeks 2-11

The relevant dates for the pieces of assessed work are detailed in the Course Programme. All of the pieces of assessment for SPAN 312 relate to all three of the course objectives.

Submission and return of work

Tidy presentation is essential. Work may be typed or neatly handwritten. Crossings-out indicate that a piece of work is still at draft stage. Allow space for corrections: leave a 4-centimetre margin and write or type on alternate lines. Do not write in pencil.

All assignments should include a cover sheet available from SLC office. Assignments are to be handed in to the Spanish and Latin American Studies assignment slot located to the left of the SLC Office area on the 6th floor of von Zedlitz. Detailed guidelines for the presentation of essays will be distributed with the essay topics. Marked work will either be returned in class or be made available for collection from the SLC office. Please bring your student ID card with you when you come to collect your work. The Spanish and Latin American Studies Programme aims to return corrected work within 2 weeks from the date of submission.

Extensions and penalties

Extensions

Short extensions may be granted by the Course Coordinator for particular assignments if requested in writing prior to the hand-in date. Longer extensions will require appropriate supporting documentation.

Penalties

The due dates for the assignments given in the Course Outline must be adhered to. Although work may be accepted late in special circumstances, the Course Coordinator should always be contacted on or before the due dates if there is a problem. The penalty for work presented late without prior approval is a 5% deduction per day.

Class representative

The class representative provides a useful way to communicate feedback to the teaching staff during the course. A class representative will be selected at the first lecture of the course. Students may like to write the Class Rep's name and details in this box:

Class Rep name and contact details:

Class reps will attend a meeting with the Head of School to discuss how your courses are going and to raise any concerns or suggestions that they may have. You can find out more information on Class Representatives on the VUWSA website: www.vuwsa.org.nz.

Student feedback

In its previous iteration as SPAN 313, student feedback from students was very positive in the last evaluation (2014); students highly valued what they learnt, and overall rated the course as excellent. The course will therefore be offered in a similar way in 2016.

Student feedback on University courses may be found at www.cad.vuw.ac.nz/feedback/feedback_display.php
