4 COMMUNICATION OF ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

MAOR 123 has a Blackboard site. You should check this site regularly, i.e. at least twice a week.

All notices, course information (including information relating to assessments), and grades will be made available on Blackboard.

5 PRESCRIPTION AND COURSE LEARNING OBJECTIVES

5.1 Prescription

This course introduces students to a broad range of Māori beliefs, concepts and structures that are important to the foundations and development of Māori society and culture. The course will cover aspects of pre-European Māori society, cultural change, present-day developments as well as visions for the future.

5.2 Course Learning Objectives (CLOs)

Students who pass this course will be able to:

1. recognise key Māori words and concepts and use them appropriately in their own writing
2. explain and analyse key historical and contemporary Māori events and practices
3 synthesise key ideas and literature about the social and political contexts within which Māori people presently operate, and
4 demonstrate critical thinking and academic writing skills appropriate to the discipline of Māori studies.

6 COURSE CONTENT

This programme provides an outline of lecture content. The programme is flexible and where necessary will be tailored to the needs and requests of the students in the course.

7 TEACHING FORMAT

7.1 Lectures

Students will attend three 50-minute lectures per week. Lectures will involve a presentation from the Course Coordinator and guest lecturers, often with time for questions and discussion.

7.2 Tutorials

Students will attend a 50-minute tutorial, once per week. Tutorials provide a space for students to discuss the readings and issues for each section of the course. Students are expected to have read all assigned readings in preparation for tutorials and to have formulated questions to discuss with other students and the tutor.

8 MANDATORY COURSE REQUIREMENTS (MCRs)

In addition to achieving an overall pass mark of 50%, students must (except where the Course Coordinator’s permission is granted):

- attend at least 6 out of 10 tutorials so that they will have the opportunity to develop their critical thinking skills in relation to learning about historical and contemporary Māori events and practices.

Any student who is concerned that they have been (or might be) unable to meet any of the MCRs because of exceptional personal circumstances, should contact the Course Coordinator as soon as possible.

9 WORKLOAD

The standard University workload for a 20-point course applies, i.e. 200 hours in total, spread over the teaching weeks, i.e. about 14 hours per week (inclusive of lectures and tutorials).

Each week, the remaining 10 hours should be spent on:

- reading material set for tutorials (1-2 hours)
- preparing for and revising material from lectures (2-4 hours), and
- working on assignments or preparing for the examination (7-10 hours).

The division of time between reading for assignments and writing assignments will vary from week to week.
10 ASSESSMENT

10.1 Assessment Requirements

Information about all course assessments are contained in this course outline. Assessments will be explained in class. If you are unsure about any assessment requirement, please contact the Course Coordinator. Marking guides are available on Blackboard.

Internal course work will account for 60% of the total assessment for this course. The final examination will account for 40% of the total assessment for this course.

Total internal assessment 60%

10.2 Key Words Test

During the usual lecture session on Thursday 11 August an in-class test will be held that will assess your understanding of words and terms that are key to you being able to engage with this course. Further information about this test will be provided in lectures, tutorials and on Blackboard.

10.3 Aronui Assignment 1: Sources

You will be given a set of topics and asked to identify scholarly sources on which to base a later assignment. This assignment will primarily assess your ability to find appropriate sources and follow the Te Kawa a Māui referencing style. Further information about this assignment will be provided in lectures, tutorials and on Blackboard.

This sources assignment must be submitted by 4:30pm on Thursday 18 August.

10.4 Aronui Assignment 2: Research

This assignment will require you to consider more closely a selection of sources (including those that you identified in the earlier Sources assignment). It will assess your ability to explain Māori words, concepts, and events, synthesise literature, and demonstrate critical thinking and academic skills. Further information about this assignment will be provided in lectures, tutorials and on Blackboard.

The research assignment must be submitted by 4:30pm on Thursday 15 September.
10.5 Aronui Assignment 3: Literature Review

This assignment will require you to produce a literature review on a set topic, drawing on your research and preparation completed in the first two assignments. It will assess your ability to reflect on Māori concepts and events, synthesise literature, and demonstrate critical thinking and academic skills.

Further information about this assignment will be provided in lectures, tutorials and on Blackboard.

The literature review assignment must be submitted by 4:30pm on Thursday 13 October.

10.6 Final Examination

The final examination is a three-hour closed book examination that will assess all aspects of the course, and will be held during the trimester 2 examination period. The date, time, and venue will be announced on Blackboard and in lectures as soon as this information becomes available.

11 SUBMISSION AND RETURN OF COURSE WORK

11.1 Submission of Course Work

All work submitted for this course MUST be posted in the Assignment Box, Māori Studies School Office, 50 Kelburn Parade. All assignments are registered in the Māori Studies School Office. DO NOT hand work to the Course Coordinator, or leave assignments under the Course Coordinator’s door. Please keep a copy of your work.

You are required to use the standard cover sheet for Te Kawa a Māui assignments. Hard copies of this are available by the Assignment Box.

11.2 Return of Course Work

Where possible, marked work will be returned to students in class. If a student is absent, or if work is returned in non-teaching periods, students will be notified of its availability via Blackboard, and it can be collected from the Māori Studies School Office at 50 Kelburn Parade. Students can collect their marked work Monday to Friday between the hours of 9:00am-1:00pm only. Work cannot be given back outside of these times.

The Course Coordinator endeavours to have work marked and returned within two weeks of its submission.

12 EXTENSIONS AND PENALTIES

By prior arrangement and for very good reasons an extension might be granted. However, without an express extension from the Course Coordinator the following penalty will apply:

- 5%* will be deducted for every day or part day that the assignment is late.
  NB* 5% is equivalent to one grade i.e. from an A+ to an A.

Unless an extension is previously granted, the final date for submission of MAOR 123 internal course work is Friday 14 October at 4:30pm.
13  SET TEXTS

13.1  Required Text

There is no set text for MAOR 123. Readings and other supplementary material will be placed on Blackboard.

13.2  Recommended Reading

If you are unfamiliar with the Māori language you may find the following online dictionaries helpful:

- Te Aka Dictionary
  www.maoridictionary.co.nz/
- Ngata Dictionary
  www.learningmedia.co.nz/ngata/

Alternatively you may want to purchase a dictionary, such as the following one available from vicbooks:

13.3  Academic Writing Guide

Students will be required to make their written work conform to the Māori Studies academic writing guidelines. A copy of these guidelines will be made available on Blackboard.

14  TE PŪTAHI ATAWHAI MENTORING PROGRAMME

Te Pūtahi Atawhai (TPA) coordinates a mentoring programme for Māori and Pasifika students who would like additional support and assistance to help them to succeed with their courses. To check which courses this service is available for, speak to a TPA staff member or visit their Kelburn Campus office space located on Level 2 of the Student Union Building.

15  CLASS REPRESENTATIVE

The class representative provides a useful way to communicate feedback to the teaching staff during the course. A class representative will be selected at the first lecture of the course.

16  STUDENT FEEDBACK

Feedback is important to ensure this course contains information of relevance to our students.

Based on the feedback of previous student cohorts, the following enhancements have been made:

- more effort will be made to provide feedback that helps students to learn more effectively, and
• More emphasis will be placed on teaching students the skills of critical thinking.

A Centre for Academic Development (CAD) feedback process will be conducted at the end of the course, which will allow students to give feedback on an anonymous basis. Student feedback on University courses may be found at www.cad.vuw.ac.nz/feedback/feedback_display.php.
