Duty of Disclosure

When you apply for insurance, you have a duty at law, to disclose to us all material facts. A material fact is one that may influence a prudent insurer in deciding whether or not to accept the cover and, if so, on what terms and conditions and for what premium.

Examples of information you may need to disclose include:

- anything that increases the risk of an insurance claim;
- any criminal conviction subject to the Criminal Records (Clean Slate) Act 2004;
- if another insurer has cancelled or refused to insure or renew insurance, has imposed special terms, or refused any claim;
- any insurance claim or loss made or suffered in the past.

These examples are a guide only. If there is any doubt as to whether any particular piece of information needs to be disclosed, this should be referred to us.

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure it may result in:

- this policy being avoided retrospectively with the effect that the policy never existed;
- this policy being cancelled;
- the amount We pay if You make a claim being reduced; or
- us refusing to pay a claim..

I hereby declare:

To the best of my/our knowledge all the statements in this form are correct.

I have not withheld any information material to this application.

I understand that:

- the personal information provided in this form is being collected by Allianz Partners to enable it to evaluate my/our application;
- I have certain rights of access to and correction of the personal information provided by me/us on this form or in support of any claim, but if I do provide any incorrect information, Allianz Partners may be entitled to decline any claim.

I authorise Allianz Partners or its agents to:

- obtain personal information about me from any other party and to release that information to other parties if requested;
- obtain information from the Insurance Claims Register (ICR Ltd), which holds details of claims made by me/us under policies with other insurers that is in their view relevant to this application;
- place details of any claim made on the database of ICR Ltd where it will be retained and be available to other insurance companies to inspect.
