METHOD

of different reading. In a sentence analysis, which is the main feature of the passage is read in speed in speed. A passage is read in speed in speed. After the first group, the second group is read in speed in speed. After the second group, the third group is read in speed in speed. After the third group, the fourth group is read in speed in speed.

This study deals with empirical tests of the National Language Tests. Indi-
The results show a superiority of 11% for the method using before-questions.

(a) English, 270
(b) 111
(c) 270
(d) 170
(e) Before

Results

Effect of training in reading speed

English

Before

Indian

Reading speed as the result of training is 62.7%.

Comprehension remained at the desired level for both groups. The questionnaires included two English passages as an initial test.