The source of the text is not clearly visible due to the quality of the image. However, it appears to be discussing a university world list and the vocabulary of university students.

"Although the dictionary and two groups described under previous teaching, it is certain that the words included in the world list are to be used in the modern English language. They are the words that are frequently used in spoken English and are therefore considered to be English words. The list includes words that are commonly used in scientific, technical, and academic fields, as well as everyday language.

English vocabulary can be divided into two groups—a small group of words that are essential for communication and a larger group that is more specialized and less common. Understanding and using the words in the world list is crucial for effective communication in English.

The list includes words from various fields such as science, technology, and business, reflecting the importance of having a broad vocabulary in these areas.

The words in the world list are not limited to the dictionary entries but also include common phrases and colloquial expressions. This makes the list a valuable resource for students and professionals who need to expand their vocabulary and improve their command of the English language.

The inclusion of words from different fields in the world list ensures that the students are prepared to use language appropriately in various contexts. This is essential for effective communication and professional success.
The一遍的 LBW and English words in the first-year college English textbooks. This year's frequency list is not the final one, which is expected to be released next year. The list is not only a comprehensive collection of English words, but also a valuable resource for English teachers and students. It is hoped that this list can help English learners to improve their vocabulary and reading skills.
