Apple on a Stick

R4

In this clapping game you just have to repeat the actions over and over again.

The rhyme goes like this:

Apple on a stick

Makes me sick

My heart beat

2-4-6

Not because you're dirty

Not because you're clean

Not because you kiss the boys

Behind the magazine.

The boys boys having fun

Here comes a lady with some blueberry buns

She can wriggle

She can rock

She can even do the splitz

But I bet ya 10 bucks

She can't do this

Close your eyes and count to 10

If you make a mistake

You're a big fat hen.

1-2-3-4-5-6-7-8-9-10

You did/didn't make a mistake

So that's the end

And we are friends.

V8-AK1 – visit material

 But I bet you 10 bucks that they can't do this –
 Close your eyes and count to ten
 If you can't do this you're a big fat hen [Close eyes and do it again]

American Rhythm

P23

You sit in a circle. Number off from 1 to however many people there are. The last three are King, Queen and Jack as well.

You keep these numbers throughout the whole game, except King, Queen, Jack. To play you slap your knees twice, then clap twice, then click your fingers twice, all in time and quite slow. King starts off by saying “King” then another number, e.g. 5: “King, 5”. They say this in time with the clicks. Then, since King called 5, on the next clicks, 5 says “5”, then another number, e.g. 2, so they say “5,2” in time with the clicks. Then 2, etc. If somebody makes a mistake, like hesitating or calling the numbers that King, Queen, Jack are, they go in the “dungeon” which is the centre of the circle. Then everyone moves up to their seat, e.g. 5 goes out, so 4 moves up to 5’s seat, 3 moves up to 4’s seat, etc. If King, Queen or Jack goes out, then when moving up, the player that ends up in their chair, they become King, or Queen or Jack.
