

No. XIX.

NEW SOUTH WALES
LAWS REPEALED.

AN ORDINANCE to repeal an Ordinance enacted by the Governor of New Zealand, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, whereby the Laws of New South Wales were declared to extend to and be in force in the Colony of New Zealand. [15th March, 1842.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS by an Ordinance enacted by the Governor of New Zealand, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council, (Session I., No. 1.,) intituled "An Ordinance to declare the Laws of New South Wales, so far as they can be made applicable, shall extend to and be in force in Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand from and subsequent to the date of Her Majesty's Royal Charter and Letters Patent erecting into a separate Colony the Islands of New Zealand, and to indemnify the Lieutenant-Governor and other Officers thereof for certain acts done and performed between the date of the said Royal Charter and Letters Patent and the day of passing this Ordinance," after reciting that it was expedient that until such Laws and Ordinances as might be necessary for the good government of this Colony could be well considered and ordained, all such Laws Acts or Ordinances of New South Wales as were applicable to this Colony should continue to be acted upon and be applied therein, it was enacted and declared that so much of all and every of the Laws Acts or Ordinances theretofore enacted by the Governor and Legislative Council of New South Wales and then in force therein as had already been and could thereafter during the continuance of the said Ordinances be applied within the said Colony of New Zealand, should be and the same were thereby adopted and declared and directed to be extended to and applied in the administration of justice in the said Colony of New Zealand in like manner as all other the Laws of England, and as if the same had been repealed and re-enacted in the said Ordinance: And whereas fitting provision has now been made for the good government of the Colony of New Zealand by the Governor and Legislative Council thereof:

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the Governor of New Zealand, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

Ordinance repealed.

1. The said recited Ordinance, and all Laws Acts or Ordinances of New South Wales which heretofore have been in force in this Colony, are hereby repealed.

No law of New South
Wales to be hereafter in force.

2. No Law Act or Ordinance of New South Wales shall hereafter be of any force or effect whatever within the Colony of New Zealand.

Commencement of Ordinance.

3. This Ordinance shall come into operation on the twenty-fifth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and forty-two.
