

Rubric for Legislation and Government Policy

Student ID _____

BCom Learning Goal 3

Local and Global Citizenship: Graduates can engage constructively with their local and international communities.

BCom Learning Objective 3a

Assess the way in which legislation and government policy influences the business environment in national and global contexts.

Trait	Exemplary	Satisfactory	Unsatisfactory	E/S/U
Understand the problem/issue/situation in the national and global contexts.	Succinctly and accurately explains and summarises all key elements of the specific situation.	Explains and summarises most key elements of the specific situation.	Many key elements missing and/or inaccurately explained.
Make explicit any assumptions relating to the global/national context.	Identifies key conditioning assumptions succinctly, and fully appreciates their significance.	Identifies a key conditioning assumption.	Fails to identify any key conditioning assumptions.
Use analytical technique to assess the effect on the national economy.	For the prescribed policy regime, uses technique correctly, to assess the effect on the national economy of the global shocks.	For the prescribed policy regime, uses technique appropriately and mostly correctly for the task.	For the prescribed policy regime, technique is not well applied.
Draw conclusions on the effect of government policy.	Draw thorough, appropriate conclusions on the effect of government policy demonstrating an ability to identify priority, significance and impact.	Draw appropriate, justifiable conclusions on the effect of government policy addressing major outcomes.	Conclusions on the effect of government policy do not follow from analysis, or are absent, or are presented in a trivial fashion.	