

Public Lecture—The Evolution of Sustainable Capitalism

Public Lectures

🕒 10 July 2024 from 5.30 pm - 6.30 pm

Add to calendar 📅

📍 GBLT3, Old Government Buildings, 55 Lambton Quay, Pipitea, Wellington

Te Kauhanganui Tātai Ture—Faculty of Law, in collaboration with the University of Richmond School of Law, is delighted to invite you to the following public lecture.

The Evolution of Sustainable Capitalism

Professor Amelia Miazad | UC Davis School of Law | US

As society's expectations of businesses shift, leaders are navigating a landscape where compliance is no longer enough; they must align with the values of stakeholders. This redefined corporate purpose sees companies stepping into roles traditionally held by governments and nonprofits, prompting legal, ethical, and business complexities.

In this lecture, Professor Amelia Miazad will delve into the evolution of sustainable capitalism and ESG, contextualizing its past, present, and future trajectory.

Register here

About Professor Miazad

Professor Amelia Miazad's scholarship and teaching focuses on corporate law and environmental and social risk governance. In her recent scholarly work, Professor Miazad analyzes the consequences of climate risk for corporate law, delving into areas such as antitrust, securities law, and fiduciary duties. She is regularly invited to present her scholarship to audiences in the U.S. and internationally. Professor Miazad has been quoted by the business and legal media including The New York Times, National Public Radio, The Financial Times, Politico, The World Economic Forum, and Law360, among others.

In addition to the courses she teaches at UC Davis School of Law, Professor Miazad has developed and instructs courses tailored for corporate executives and board members focusing on environmental and social risk governance. Previously, she served as a Senior Research Fellow at UC Berkeley School of Law, where she founded and led the Business in Society Institute. Professor Miazad received her J.D. from Berkeley Law.