In Passing is a collaborative effort of Gabe Lavin (oud) and Dave Wilson (clarinets) that explores the intersections of a number of jazz sensibilities and music cultures of the Middle East. Original duo compositions and improvisations take shape through the lens of their diverse musical backgrounds with roots in Montana, North Africa, and the Middle East (Lavin), as well as Chicago, former Yugoslavia, and Los Angeles (Wilson). With appearances by expert of Middle East vocal traditions Albert Agha and Spanish percussionist Pablo Infante-Amate, In Passing celebrates musical commonalities among diverse traditions and renders visible the ephemerality of sonic convergences.

Gabe Lavin, oud; Dave Wilson, clarinet and bass clarinet

Albert Agha, vocals on Long Live;

Pablo Infante-Amate, riqq on Carta Blanca

Recorded and mixed by Vanessa Parr at the Recording Studio at the

UCLA Herb Alpert School of Music, Los Angeles, California

Mastered by Jeremiah Slovarp at Peach Street Studios, Bozeman, Montana

All tracks produced and composed by Gabe Lavin and Dave Wilson except for Longa Nahawand (Lavin) composed by Gabe Lavin and Goodbye Pork Pie Hat composed by Charles Mingus.
