

ICON-S Australia & New Zealand Chapter Conference
‘HE MAHI RARANGA: Infusion and Diffusion of Australasian Public Law’
Victoria University of Wellington

Wednesday 26th August

15:00 — Assembly for Pōwhiri

15:15-16:00 — Pōwhiri

16:00-16:30 — Afternoon tea

16:30-16:45 — Conference welcome

16:45-18:15 — Plenary 1: ‘The Law That Was Always There’: Weaving First Nations and Pasifika Knowledges Into the Law Curriculum

18:30 — Supper

The afternoon’s proceedings commence with a pōwhiri (traditional welcome) at Te Tumu Herenga Waka, the Victoria University Marae. Following the pōwhiri will be afternoon tea. The first plenary panel will take place in the wharenui (traditional meeting house). In accordance with marae kawa (protocol), those attending the plenary in the wharenui must be welcomed onto the marae through the pōwhiri.

Conference delegates who arrive after the start of the pōwhiri or during the plenary panel are welcome to join the proceedings in the Ngā Mokopuna building adjacent to the wharenui, where the plenary panel will be simulcast by video feed.

The conference dinner also takes place in Ngā Mokopuna and all delegates can attend, whether they participated in the pōwhiri or not. More details about the pōwhiri and kawa will be provided in the information pack before the conference.

Thursday 27th August

10:00–11:30 — Plenary 2: The Automated State

11:30–11:45 — Morning Tea

11:45–13:15 — Parallel Session A

13:15–14:15 — Lunch

14:15–15:45 — Parallel Session B

15:45–16:15 — Afternoon Tea

16:15–17:45 — Plenary 3: The Judiciary in an Age of Distrust

Friday 28th August

08:30–10:00 — Parallel Session C

10:00–10:30 — Brunch

10:30–12:00 — Parallel Session D

12.15–13:30 — Plenary 4: New Directions in Constitutionalism

13:30 — Conference Close