

GROUP A

Panel 1 – Rights and Equality

- Proportionality Testing under the South African Bill of Rights and Australian Human Rights Acts: Strange Bedfellows? — Dr Bruce Chen
- Is Parliament Baigent Proof? Public Law Damages for Rights-Inconsistent Statutes — Benjamin Christy
- Equality's Unfinished Architecture: Finding Its Place in Australian Public Law — Alice Taylor
- Conceptions of Equality in Australian Constitutional Law — Murray Wesson
- Continuing Violations of Human Rights, NZBORA 1990, and Unincorporated International Law — Dr Lida Ayoubi

Panel 2 – Democracy and Participation

- Democracy and the Public Service — Janet McLean
- Strengthening the Independence of Pacific Legislatures – Standing Alone or Working Together? — Debra Angus
- Local Referendums: The Australian Experience — Paul Kildea
- Access, Accountability and the Constitution: Rethinking the Normative and Democratic Foundations of Freedom of Information Laws in Australia — Danielle Moon, Jemimah Roberts, Shireen Morris

Panel 3 – Information, Technology and the Digital State

- Regulating Democratically Harmful Social Media Communication in the Digital Age — Pheobe Jane Galbally
- Regulating AI in Elections: Emerging Democratic Responses to Generative AI — Marcus Ganley
- Procedural Unfairness in the Digital State — Alexandra Sinclair
- Unsettled Issues Concerning Administrative Policy Guidelines — Hanna Wilberg

GROUP B

Panel 4– Sovereignty and Political Identity

- Beyond Translation: Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Nationhood and the Truth of Political Identity in Australia — Madeleine Perrett
- Sovereign Nations or Sovereign Citizens? Disentangling Indigenous Sovereignty Claims from 'Sovereign Citizen' Arguments in New Zealand's Criminal Courts — Fleur Te Aho
- Indigenous Self-Determination and Cultural Authority: Lessons Unlearned in Australian Public Law — Jason O'Neill
- Treaty-Making and Constitutional Irresolution — Keith Cherry
- Tuvalu's 2023 Constitution — Lisepa Paeniu

Panel 5– Judicial Power and Constitutional Method

- Parliamentary Privilege, Judicial Independence and Judicial Power — Professor Matthew Groves
- Method as Precedent? Reconsidering Methodological Stare Decisis in Australian and United States Constitutional Adjudication — Dr Jemimah Roberts
- Legislative Choice within the Allowed Bounds: Prelude to a Rawlsian Theory of Judicial Review — Jiacheng Gong
- “You Learn the Law in Order to Use It”: Can and Should We Learn About Tikanga Māori in Order to Use It, and If So How? — Mihiata Pirini

Panel 6– Legal Personhood and Public Law Diffusion

- Papatuanuku the Exhumer – Legal Protections for Urupā, Cemeteries and Memorials in a Changing World? — Rachael Evans
- Weaving Legal Personhood into Environmental Law: A Pedagogical Challenge — Dr Durgeshree Raman
- Judicial Allegiance and the Diffusion of Public Law in the Pacific — Mele Tupou Vaitohi
- Public Law Educators and the Infusion and Diffusion of Public Law in Australia — Svetlana Tyulkina

Panel 7– Comparative and Political Process Theory

- Scott Stephenson
- Ignacio Giuffré

GROUP C

Panel 8– Accountability and Institutional Design

- Non-judicial Constitutional Review and the Rule of Law — Legesse Mengie
- Authoritative but Contingent: Institutional Epistemics and the Attribution of Blame — Dr Zoë Prebble
- Judicial Federalism: Australia and Beyond — Anna Olijnyk
- Delegated Legislation as a Site of Public Law Diffusion: Lessons from Animal Welfare Law — Frankie Bray
- Judicial Accountability and Constitutional Resilience: A Comparative Study of India and Australasian Public Law Systems — Shriram Bhargaw

Panel 9– Statutory Interpretation Across the Tasman

- Professor Lisa Burton Crawford
- Professor Rosalind Dixon
- Professor Jason Varuhas
- Professor Dan Meagher
- Justice Matthew Palmer
- Chair: Dr Bruce Chen

Panel 10– Book Discussion – Outlawed

- Fleur Te Aho
- Andrew Geddis
- Elisabeth Perham
- Marcelo Rodriguez Ferrere
- Stephen Young

GROUP D

Panel 11– Social Cohesion, Protest, and National Security

- Hate Speech, Communicating National Security Law, and the Problem with Social Cohesion — Danielle Ireland-Piper
- After the No: Social Cohesion, Law and First Nations Futures — Associate Professor Narelle Bedford
- Making and Reforming Legal Responses to Foreign Interference: the Importance of Statutory Explanation to Social Cohesion — Dominique Dalla-Pozza
- There's No Place Like Home: Rebalancing Residential Privacy and Protest in New Zealand — John Ip

Panel 12– Concepts, Categories and Public Law

- Freedom of Thought: A Conceptual Clarification — Dr Darshan Datar
- What Does 'Full Employment' Mean in the Reserve Bank of Australia's Legislated Mandate? Applying Statutory Interpretation to Defend Australians' Right to Work — Shireen Morris
- An Australian Fiction of Detention and Punishment — Duncan Wallace
- Do Courts Dream of Statutes and Precedents? – Observing the Youth Court of Aotearoa New Zealand – A Pilot Study in Psychosocial Methods — Richard Cornes

Panel 13– Legislating for the Future

- Justice David Goddard
- Professor Lisa Burton Crawford
- Professor Anna Huggins
- Dr Patrick Leslie
- John Bassett (Chair)

Panel 14– Book Roundtable – Small State Constitutionalism

- Dr Elisabeth Perham (editor/author)
- Prof Rosalind Dixon (editor/author)
- Dr Mele Tupou-Vaitohi (author)
- Dr Jessica Kerr (discussant)
- Professor Dean Knight (Chair)