

WELLINGTON

THE COOLEST LITTLE CAPITAL IN THE WORLD

New Zealand's political and cultural capital is a sophisticated and convenient destination to hold a memorable business event or conference. Labelled the 'Coolest Little Capital in the World' by Lonely Planet's Best in Travel 2011, it combines big city style with small village charm.

The city's picturesque harbour and vibrant dining scene have been seducing travellers for decades, while its forested hills, boutique shopping and proximity to the wine regions of Wairarapa and Marlborough will ensure it lingers in the minds of delegates for years to come.

ACCESS

Multi award-winning Wellington International Airport is well served by major international airlines, with Air New Zealand, Qantas and Virgin Australia providing regular direct flights from Sydney, Melbourne and Brisbane. For those flying in from other major overseas destinations, Wellington is easily accessed through New Zealand's major international gateway cities of Auckland and Christchurch.

Located in the centre of New Zealand, Wellington International Airport is the major domestic hub. Air New Zealand and Jetstar flights travel to and from locations all over the country regularly. Wellington International Airport is just 10km from the city centre. The short and picturesque 20 minute drive into the city can be taken on the Airport Flyer bus or by taxi, shuttle or rental car.

GETTING AROUND

The capital is renowned for its compact nature and is easy to explore on foot. It takes just 20 minutes to walk from one end of the business district to the other.

Local bus services are a good alternative for travellers who want to get around more quickly and taxis are easy to find for those who want door-to-door transport to their business event or conference venue.

ACCOMMODATION

Wellington offers a wide range of quality accommodation ideal for business events and conventions, with city and harbour views a common theme. Choose from unique boutique hotels, self-serviced apartments and fully serviced global hotel brands providing both accommodation and conference facilities on-site.

VENUES

Wellington has a multitude of flexible meeting and event venues, from elegant historic buildings to stylish restaurants and warehouses alongside its stunning harbour.

Positively Wellington Venues has the largest range of meeting and conference spaces in Wellington. This includes the elegant Michael Fowler Centre, with seating for more than 2,000 people in its auditorium, and the stylish new Shed 6 venue, located on Wellington's waterfront providing theatre seating for almost 1,000. Positively Wellington Venues also manages the capital's largest indoor space, TSB Bank Arena. Located right next door to Shed 6 on the waterfront, the TSB Bank Arena has seating for 4,000 people.

Other venue options include the majestic St James Theatre and the Opera House, both of which are fantastic venues for showcasing the creative arts.

Australasia's most visited museum, Museum of New Zealand Te Papa Tongarewa, is an iconic venue with conference rooms capable of accommodating up to 1,000 people. Te Papa means 'our place' in Māori and the museum is an amazing interactive showcase of New Zealand history.

The nearby Te Raukura/Te Wharewaka o Poneke merges traditional Māori design with a contemporary context. This versatile waterfront venue houses two ceremonial waka (Māori canoes) and can host up to 550 people.

All these venues are within five minutes' walk of each other, allowing organisers to build a varied and easily managed programme.
