

Current School of Government PhD research

(As at 10/10/2023)

PhD student	Title of Thesis	Supervision Team
Annika Naschitzki	The drivers and impacts of internal restructures in New Zealand's public sector organisations	AProf. Karl Lofgren Dr Geoff Plimmer
Barbara Bedeschi-Lewando	Pacific Policy Innovation for the realisation of the Sustainable Development Goals	Prof. Alberto Costi
Geetanjali Sharma	Regulatory Governance in the Indian Context	Dr Flavia Donadelli Prof. Karl Lofgren
Kirsten Jensen	Valuing public expenditure -The wellbeing value to society of the New Zealand winter energy payment; Implications for public finance institutional design	Prof. Arthur Grimes Dr Dennis Wesselbaum
Kristen Maynard	He Kākano nō Rangiātea Wairua in a Public Service Context	Dr Amanda Wolf Dr Julia Talbot-Jones
Kyungjin Min (KJ)	Examining the role of procurement in driving sustainability in smart cities	Dr Wonhyuk Cho Dr Barbara Allen
Lola Toppin-Casserly	Ethical Leadership in Governance	Prof. Michael Macaulay Dr Geoff Plimmer
Mākere Hurst	Intergenerational Māori Wellbeing: The relationship between Māori and Whenua	Prof. Arthur Grimes Dr Matthew Roskrue
Sara Passmore	Intra-Organisational Pro-Social behaviour within community social service providers that have New Zealand Government contracts.	Dr Amanda Wolf Dr Barbara Allan
Philip Riley	Early Childhood Education and Family Dynamics	Prof. Arthur Grimes Dr Kate Prickett
Stephanie Worboys (Under examination from August 2023)	Exploring the Relationship between Justice and Forgiveness	Prof. Chris Marshall Dr Tom Noakes-Duncan
Toby Moore	Downwards Nominal Wage Rigidity and Public Policy in New Zealand	Prof. Jonathan Boston Dr Simon Chapple Dr Dean Hyslop

Timothy Chung Ko Ng	Business practices, dynamic capabilities and government support for firm performance: An investigation using the New Zealand Business Operations Survey	Prof. Arthur Grimes Dr Yiğit Sağlam
---------------------	--	--