REREAO— WELLINGTON GLOBAL EXCHANGE

Complete up to a year of your degree overseas while paying your regular tuition fees.

We'll even help you finance your trip with a $1,000 grant.

WHO ARE WE LOOKING FOR?

Undergraduate students

Students can go on an exchange at any time in their second or third year. Students going on exchange in their final trimester will need to have completed the minimum core requirements prior to leaving and have done at least half their 300-level major, minor, and degree requirements at Te Herenga Waka—Victoria University of Wellington.

KITEA IMPACT PROGRAMME

Students who participate in the Kitea Impact Programme could receive a further $1,000 grant for their exchange.

INTERESTED IN AN EXCHANGE?

How to apply

Step 1: Attend an information session

Information sessions are held weekly during term time at the Kelburn campus.

For further information and times, go to wgtn.ac.nz/student-exchange/about/contact

Step 2: Meet with your student success adviser

Make sure you are aware of what courses are left in your degree, and which ones of those are compatible with studying overseas, by meeting with your adviser and requesting a degree audit.

Step 3: Research possible exchange universities

When submitting your application, you must select three universities and be prepared to go to any one of your choices, as availability is often limited and some Music partners can be harder to get into. Make sure you have looked at the courses of your top choices online to check they align with your degree.

Step 4: Apply online

Submit your application via Pūaha. Do this by selecting 'Services & FAQ > Manage my studies > Apply for Outbound Exchange'.

When to apply

For an exchange in the following year:

- · apply by 10 July for Trimester 1
- apply by 1 December for Trimester 2.
